

CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

ESTABLISHED 1882. THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CUSTER COUNTY. LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

VOL. XXIII.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1905.--EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 36.

Gems for the Fair.

Woman may be surrounded by all things, but her happiness and beauty lie in exquisite jewelry. The finishing touch to a woman's toilet, good jewelry has ever betokened good taste and good breeding—by good jewelry we do not necessarily mean expensive jewelry, but we do mean jewelry in taste, of latest designs and patterns—our kind. We are well aware there are many opportunities for deception in jewelry selling—therefore in buying one should patronize a reliable firm.

LOCAL MENTION.

G. W. Peery of Anselmo, was a county seat visitor last Friday.

Ambrose Foren of Rest, was a business caller in the city last Saturday.

Mark James and wife of Pender Nebraska, stopped over night in our city last Friday on their way to visit his brother Harvey, of Seneca. Mr. James says if suited he will locate there.

We notice from the Alliance Grip that S. K. Warrick is talked of as a candidate for Mayor on anti-license ticket. As Mr. Warrick has resided in Broken Bow for several years where anti-license has prevailed it would be no new experience to him and we predict that should he be elected he would succeed in controlling the liquor traffic even in Alliance.

L. R. Hearsh who lives about three miles east of town was a city visitor Monday, being one of the first to encounter the snow drifts between his place and the city. Some six of his neighbors provided themselves with shovels and drove in together. So when they encountered a snow drift it did not take them long to open a way. The largest drift encountered was at the "Hog back," two miles east of town. The other drifts were only a few yards long in each place and were soon opened.

A man by the name of J. Boehme was killed in the depot at Whitman last Friday night by G. B. Phillips over a game of cards. It appears that the two men had been playing cards earlier in the evening and got into a quarrel. Phillips left the game and went to the depot where he was sleeping on a bench in the waiting room, waiting for a delayed train. It is alleged Boehme entered the depot and renewed the quarrel and attacked Phillips with a club. Phillips fired two shots killing him on the spot. Phillips, notified the sheriff of the fact and offered to surrender.

The snow does not get too deep nor the weather too cold for W. J. Woods, when an undertaking job is ordered. He received an order last Sunday from Merna for his hearse Monday to assist in the funeral of J. R. Mauk, the restaurant man of that place. Monday morning he started, L. E. Cole and John Hastings for Merna with four large horses and the hearse. As the road had not been broken they had to encounter all the snow drifts and break their own road. It took them until 8 o'clock that night to reach Merna, a distance of ten miles. The next morning through the blizzard that prevailed at that time they completed their task, by conveying the corpse to the cemetery and returned that evening to this city. They report a number of times all four horses were down in the snow drift at once and frequently the hearse came near being upset.

DIED:—Moore, Wednesday morning the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. France Moore of this city, age three months. The deceased had the whooping cough, but was not considered serious until Sunday when it began to grow worse. The funeral services will be held tomorrow in M. E. church. The Republican extends the sympathy of the community to the family in their bereavement.

The Highlander team had a sleighing party last night. From the blowing of horns and jingle of sleigh bells, and loud laughter that rent the air as the procession gaily glided along, we infer they enjoyed a good time. The streets were in excellent condition for sleighing and the weather all that could be desired for such an occasion. It reminded us of the days of yore when we used to sing "Then Jingle, Jingle, bells and hoofs are gay, clatter, clatter, as they dash away."

The Glaze Marble Works of this city, have been getting out some very fine monuments during the winter, and now have on hand a large number of finished monuments ready to put up as soon as the weather will permit. Among the fine monuments is a "rustic stump," five feet eight inches high, ordered by Mrs. Mabel Manuel, who now lives in California, for her husband, Linton E. Manuel, who was drowned while bathing in the Middle Loup river at Milburn, August 25th, 1901. It will be put up in the West Union Cemetery. Another very fine one is a granite stone of fine dimensions containing the Masonic Square and Compass that will mark the last resting place of Al. Haines in the Ansley Cemetery.

Dr. T. W. Bass, went to Lincoln yesterday, where he was called by the illness of his wife, who in company with her daughter, Ethel, is visiting friends in that city this week.

The M. W. A. Masquerade ball last Tuesday evening, was a pleasing event, to those enjoying that kind of entertainment. About eighty tickets were sold, and quite a variety of costumes exhibited.

The fine weather of yesterday and today helps us to forget the frigid weather for the past month. It now looks as we might have a general thaw. Let us hope we may and be happier for the thought.

The preaching services were not held at the Baptist church last Sunday as advertised. Owing to the storms the trains were delayed about sixty hours, and Rev. Alexander, who was expected from Burchard was unable to reach here. He is expected for next Sunday, but as we go press we are not able to announce definitely whether he will be here or not.

Deputy Phelps informs us that he has secured twenty-five applicants for membership in the Highlanders for next Tuesday night. The team has provided new costumes and are now prepared to put on the work in better shape than ever. The committee on refreshments is arranging to have their part of the program in readiness. No member can afford to miss the next meeting.

J. G. VanCott of St. Paul, who recently contracted for the Squires Bros. hardware store, will commence the invoicing of his new purchase the first of next week. Mr. VanCott is a young man of fine appearance and comes highly recommended. The REPUBLICAN extends to him a welcome to the business circle of Broken Bow and bespeak for him a liberal share of the public patronage.
